And Ranges in great variety. No better Christmas present for wife or friend than one of our stoves.

THE
"Malleable"
Range.

Isn't the kitchen of your home of sufficient importance, at least, for you to inform yourself of what progress is being made in the improvement of cooking apparatus? You're cordially welcome—if buying's the farthest from your mind.

We are glad to seat you at the table and see you mingle with the crowd.

The range that is a luxury, as well as a necessity; a delight to the whole family. Will last an entire lifetime if properly used; save 50 per cent. of your fuel bill; pay you its cost every five years; will never crack, break, or pull apart in the seams; will never burn your house down. Examine the "locomotive" draft, the "pouch" feed, the "punch" feed, the "contract" reservoir, the "paper" stove pipe, and other exclusive and distinctive superior features of this great cooking machine.

Seeing is believing. We invite you to come and look! Compare "The Malleable" with other ranges. We have no fear of your verdict.

FEDERAL CONTROL

Of Insurance Companies Opposed By Mr. Stanley.

Washington, Dec. 18.—Representative Stanley, of Kentucky, made a forceful speech in the House Saturday against Federal control of life insurance companies. He said it would multiply the evils it means to cure and, instead of rendering these companies more liable to the law, will grant them practical immunity from the responsibilities they are now attempting to shirk.

"The only hope I have of seeing these predatory bands of organized marauders, who prey like harpies upon the helpless and the dead," said Mr. Stanley, "brought to justice is by the awakened energies of State Legislatures and the awakened conscience of the American people. The assumption of Federal jurisdiction means the destruction of State control. It is inevitable.
Suppose the Government takes control of the insurance companies. It means that the government shall take cognizance of an insurance contract."

Mr. Stanley was frequently applauded and by unanimous consent was granted extension of time to conclude his remarks. Mr. Stanley declared that the autonomy of State would become a thing of the past and Democratic Government would become a myth if all of the autocratic suggestions of the President's message with regard to the centralization of power in the Federal Government should be carried out.

SOLD RESIDENCE

And Mr. Meacham Will Move to the Country.

Mr. W. F. Meacham has sold his residence, corner Eighteenth and High streets, to Mr. W. C. O'Brian, of near Newstead. Mr. Meacham will move his family to the home of his father, Mr. M. D. Meacham, two miles west of the city, for the present. It is understood that Mr.
O'Brian will be given immediate possession.

The Weather.

For Kentucky: Tuesday, fair and colder.

A YOUNG WIFE

Shoots Herself Through the Heart Pistol.

Hawesville, Ky., Dec.—Mrs. Florence Holder, wife of James Holder, a prominent stock dealer and racehorse breeder, committed suicide at their home near Midway, this county by shooting herself through the heart with a 38 calibre revolver. No cause can be assigned for the tragedy as the couple had lived happily, it is said, since their marriage about two years ago. Mr. Holder says he had just left the house to go to look after some stock, leaving his wife in a happy mood, fondling their eight-months-old baby boy and when only a short distance from the house he heard a shot. Running back to see what was the matter, he found his wife lying in a pool of blood with a bullet through her heart and the revolver lying by her side, the babe still lying in the cradle cooing, unconscious of its mother's awful fate.

Mrs. Holder was formerly Miss Florence Young, daughter of Mr.
James Young, section foreman at Maceo on the L., H. and St. railway. She was only nineteen years of age.

SHERIFF OF TODD

Here Saturday With a Lot Of Convicts.

Sheriff Gill, of Todd county, was here Saturday enroute to Eddyville with seven men, convicted at the last term of court. The convicts were:

Bob Morris, malicious shooting, one year; Dan Johnson, horse-stealing, three years; William Jackson, house-breaking, one year; Dick Tate, colored, horse-stealing, one year; George Tutt, colored, housebreaking, one year; Frank Link, malicious cutting, two years.

The case of P. J. Luster, the alleged Guthrie wife murderer, was continued.

CHANCE FOR CHARLIE

Said to Have The Refusal of Deputy Jones' Place.

It is said that Capt. Charles O.
Prowse, the young attorney, of this city, can, if he wants it, get the position of Deputy United States Marshal Wm. Jones of Princeton.
The place pays $1,200 a year and the principal duty is to look after moonshiners. The new Marshal, Hon.
G. W. Long, is expected to thoroug-ly reorganize the force employed under Dr. James.

RESCINDED ACTION.

Convention Will Not Meet in Chattanooga.

The executive Committee of the General Baptist Convention of North America, rescinded its action in regard to the next meeting place, and declined to accept the invitation of Chattanooga to meet there next May.
The matter was referred to another committee and it will act on invitations that may be extended.

GOOD START

For Christmas, Roundup by the Police.

The police, during Saturday and Sunday morning, made six arrests for drunkenness. This is the first indication of reviving business by the blue coats for a week or more, but they will probably have plenty to do from now on for some time.

Adjudged Insane.

Julia Tuck, a colored woman living near Oak Grove, was adjudged of unsound mind by a jury Saturday and ordered to the Western Asylum.
Her mind became unbalanced about two weeks ago. When taken in custody she was found on the public highway, not far from her home, and it was with considerable difficulty that she was brought to the city.
